INTRODUCTION

OVERVIEW

Now you can turn your ATARI Home Computer into a jukebox (no quarters required). With JUKEBOX #1 you have a selection of eight high quality "light classics". The music was developed with the help of ADVANCED MUSICSYSTEM (APX-20100), but cannot be modified with that program due to space saving measures taken by the author. You can easily make your selection from the screen display, JUKEBOX #1 will also select and play the pieces automatically. As you hear a selection, you also see it performed on a piano keyboard with four voices represented by colored keys. For additional fun, use the ATARI Paddle Controllers to change the tempo of the piece while it’s playing.
